

Starts Tuesday

11th October 2022

for 7 weeks

Classes taking place on 11th, 18th October;
1st, 22nd, 29th November; 6th, 13th December

6.45pm—8.45pm Fee : £90

Tutor : Brooks Williams

Expand your guitar playing by exploring the music that inspired the music we know.

We'll look at strumming and fingerpicking, chords that move up the neck of the guitar, and riffs we can play based around those chords. We'll do all this by learning and playing classic blues, country, folk and rock songs. All songs will be presented with lyrics, chords and chord diagrams, and, when necessary, music/Tablature. This is a fun, hand's-on workshop with lots of playing and singing. If you're looking to take your guitar playing a step further than where it is at the moment, and you want to learn some new songs, riffs and chords, then Guitar Roots And Branches is for you! Participants in this course should be familiar with and able to play the basic 1st position chords like: E, A, G, D, C, B7, F, Em, Am, Dm, Bm.

About Your Tutor

Brooks Williams

Cambridge UK-based, Statesboro, Georgia US-born guitarist singer and songwriter Brooks Williams is admired by both listeners and fellow musicians, and has been a leading light on the acoustic music scene for three decades.

Brooks Williams' guitar skills are evident as he effortlessly slides in and out of folk, blues and country with a jazz player's adroitness. It comes as no surprise he is listed in the Top 100 Acoustic Guitarists.

When not touring or recording, he actively promotes acoustic guitar and roots-folk music through workshops, online one-to-one sessions, and his ever-popular guitar weekends.
