Miller & Ward

If you love the beauty, light and warmth of a lit candle why not join us for a relaxed and informative workshop creating high-quality fragranced container candles and wax melts. Perfect for Christmas presents or for your own home this festive season.

This workshop is designed for total beginners and focuses on the use of natural waxes. We will guide you through wax selection, wick sizing, fragrance choices, safety and regulatory requirements, giving you enough knowledge to make candles and melts for yourself at home.

About Your Tutor

Miller and Ward is a small fine home fragrance business, based in Cambridge and Norfolk.

The company was started by cousins Julie and Carole after yet another discussion of our latest candle purchase from a particularly famous brand and the detrimental affect to our bank account! We decided that with training and enthusiasm we should surely be able to create an equally good candle. Fast forward two years of courses, testing and research and Miller and Ward was finally launched.

All of our candles are hand-poured in small batches using only natural wax and high-quality fragrance and essential oils.

Our products are vegan friendly and we use recyclable materials and packaging where possible.

What you need to bring to the first session

People do not need to bring anything with them but a notebook and pen might be useful; we will provide all necessary equipment and materials.

Additional costs

All costs are included in the course fee.
