

Saturday 28th January 2023

Parent and child workshop

Suitable for 8-12 year old

10am—12pm

Fee : £10 per child
(accompanying adult goes free)

Tutor : Lisa Fretwell

Do you love art? Would you like to learn a new, fun way of making pictures? If, so, join my course! I will show you how to 'draw' using just a pair of scissors and coloured paper, just like Matisse did! I will show you a quick presentation about Matisse and his work, and bring in lots of images to inspire you. By the end of the session, you will have lots of 'drawings' pieced together to make one beautiful collage. Come and join in, it's fun!

About Your Tutor

Lisa E Fretwell

My name is Lisa E Fretwell. I have been teaching art, stained glass and textile techniques for over 20 years. In the past, I have exhibited my work in New York, had a touring exhibition around the UK, and exhibited in Gallery and non-Gallery venues in Hertfordshire, Leicester, London and Northamptonshire. I have been teaching Art History in Cambridge since 2012. During term time I run courses in drawing, feltmaking and stained glass. If you want to learn a new skill in a friendly, happy environment, with an approachable, knowledgeable tutor, please join my classes!

Things to bring with you:

- Several sheets of mixed coloured sugar papers
- A pair of paper scissors
- White or black A3 or A2 paper or card to display the work on
- Pritt stick
