

Saturday 11th May 2019

10.00am - 4.00pm

£39 (£29 Concession—see below *)

Please bring a packed lunch.

Tea and coffee will be provided.

This course is for everyone who has an overlocker but is unsure how to use it, finds threading a nightmare and can never get the tensions right. On this course threading will be made easy and tension explained so that it can be set correctly. You will then see how to adjust everything to ensure your overlocker makes a perfect stitch for everything you want to make. Included in the course will be an opportunity to use the overlocker to make a simple project.

Requirements List

- Your overlocker, foot pedal and the instruction book
- All the accessories that came with the machine including tweezers and a small brush
- Spare machine needles that fit your overlocker (check your instruction book for type required)
- A small can/bottle of Sewing Machine Oil
- At least 4 reels or cones of polyester thread in different colours. (If your machine has colour coded threading then bring the colours that are the same)
- Cutting out and a small pair of scissors
- A hand sewing needle and a blunt tapestry or knitters needle
- A selection of different fabric pieces including those you most usually sew
- Fading marker pen
- Pen, pencil and ruler
