

Trumpets of Spring Wreath Making

Saturday 25th February 2023

10am—4pm

Fee : £45 plus materials

Tutor : Melanie Missin

Daffodils are the epitome of Spring, bringing joyous colour back into our world, so what better to have some in our home on a pretty wreath which can be used year after year.

There will be some machine stitching involved to create the daffodils and leaves. Organza, raffia and any other bits that take your fancy will be added to fill out the wreath and make it into your own piece of Spring.

About Your Tutor

I have passion for all things floral and fauna as well as old arts and crafts such as Indian Block Printing. I was fortunate enough to visit India in 2019 twice and saw so much inspiration in all that I saw and now using some of it in my present work. I am a past Co-ordinator for Region 9 Quilters Guild. I set up the Elysian Quilters group in Ely, Cambridgeshire. I'm chairman of Stitched Together (formerly Cambridgeshire Embroiderers' Guild) and joined a newly formed Contemporary Quilters Group CQ Icen which is affiliated with The Quilters Guild.
