

PAPER FLOWERS

1 DAY COURSE: Monday 24th July 2017

10am – 4pm

FEE: £55

including lunch and refreshments

TUTOR: Lynda Suffell

The Japanese Kusudama ball, made from paper flowers fixed together, was originally made for incense or Pot Pourri but are now typically made as decoration or gifts.

During the workshop you will be taught how to create the flowers and shown how to apply them to a variety of projects.

By the end of the day you will all leave with at least a boxed bouquet and possibly other projects depending on your creativity.

Please turn over for materials information

Materials Required:

All you need for the boxed bouquet will be supplied by the tutor for £10 per person.

(includes 3 sheets of high quality patterned paper, box, adhesive, sticks, tissue paper , cellophane, pull bow and a choice of buttons)
